UNDER-17
QUALIFIERS

Group E

Dominican Republic vs Saint Kitts & Nevis

A first-ever meeting in the history of the Concacaf Men's Under-17 Qualifiers.

The Dominican Republic will contest the opening matchday of the group stage against a Caribbean team for the second time in its tournament history. In the previous instance, it earned a 1-0 victory over Aruba on 10-Feb-2025 in Group G at Estadio Rommel Fernández in Panama City (PAN), courtesy of a goal by Ismahel Saidani. This will be the fourth time the Dominican Republic faces a Caribbean team in the history of the tournament, recording two wins and one loss. The victories have come consecutively in its last two matches (1-0 vs. Aruba, 4-0 vs. Grenada, both in 2025), while the defeat was a 2-0 loss to Haiti in the Round of 16 (8-May-2019).

Saint Kitts & Nevis will contest the opening matchday of its group against a Caribbean team for the second consecutive tournament, following a 3-1 defeat to Cuba on 10-Feb-2025 in Group F at Estadio Alejandro Morera Soto in Alajuela (CRC). Franklyn Mitcham scored for Saint Kitts & Nevis, while Lázaro Díaz x2 and Cristian Bravo found the net for Cuba.

United States vs St. Vincent & the Grenadines

A first-ever meeting in the history of the Concacaf Men's Under-17 Qualifiers.

The United States will face a Caribbean team on the opening matchday of the group stage for the 12th time in the tournament's history, winning all 11 previous matches — an unprecedented mark for any national team in the competition. The U.S. has scored 47 goals (4.3 goals per match) and conceded just two. Each of the last three U.S. opening group-stage matches against Caribbean opponents ended in a 5-0 scoreline.

Scores:

vs. Cuba on 27-Feb-2015 (Hugo Arellano, Joe Gallardo x3, Alejandro Zendejas)

vs. Jamaica on 23-Apr-2017 (Chris Durkin, Tim Weah, Josh Sargent, Ayo Akinola x2)

vs. Barbados on 11-Feb-2023 (Cruz Medina x3, Keyrol Figueroa, Taha Habroune).

St. Vincent & the Grenadines will play a match against a North American team at any matchday and any phase for the first time in its tournament history, with the United States becoming the fourth different opponent St. Vincent & the Grenadines has faced.
