

América - Portland Thorns

1. Opta Facts

- Portland Thorns defeated Club América, 3—1, in the group stage of the Concacaf W Champions Cup in Portland last September. Club América held 60.2 percent possession and attempted 17 shots to Portland's 12 in the match.
- Irene Guerrero, from Club América, has attempted the most passes in the 2025 Concacaf W Champions Cup, with 298. She also leads the competition in both passes in the attacking third (125) and crosses (26).
- Portland recorded 55 touches in the attacking box in the semi-final, the most by any team against an NWSL or Liga MX Femenil opponent in the Concacaf W Champions Cup. It was the 15th time a team had 35 or more touches in the box in a match in the competition but the first in which the team failed to score.
- Kiana Palacios of Club América is the only player to record more than 10 shots on target in this edition of the Concacaf W Champions Cup, with 11. The Mexican forward has scored three goals for Las Águilas in the tournament.
- Olivia Moultrie attempted four shots and created four chances for teammates for Portland in the semi-final against Tigres. Moultrie's eight shot involvements were the most by any player in the semi-finals, ahead of Scarlett Camberos (Club América) with seven (5 shots, 2 chances created).
