

Concacaf
WOMEN'S UNDER-20 CHAMPIONSHIP

United States

- This will be the 13th appearance for the United States in the Concacaf Women's Under-20 Championship. Their most recent participation was in the 2023 edition held in the Dominican Republic.
- The U.S. holds the record for the fewest defeats in the history of the tournament, with only 3 losses across 62 matches played.
- The team made its debut in the 2002 edition in Trinidad & Tobago, opening its campaign with a commanding 15-0 victory over Suriname—still the largest margin of victory in the program's history.
- The United States has claimed the championship title in seven editions: 2006 in Mexico, 2010 in Guatemala, 2012 in Panama, 2014 in the Cayman Islands, 2015 in Honduras, and back-to-back in 2020 and 2022 in the Dominican Republic.
- The 15-0 win over Suriname on May 7, 2002, remains the record for most goals scored by a team in a single match in tournament history.

COSTA RICA

- Costa Rica will be making its eighth appearance in the Concacaf Women's Under-20 Championship, returning after its most recent participation in the 2023 edition held in the Dominican Republic.
- The team made its tournament debut in the 2002 edition in Trinidad & Tobago, where it opened with a 4-0 win over Haiti on May 7, 2002.

- Costa Rica's best finish came in the form of three third-place honors: against Mexico in Canada 2004 (3-4), against Canada in Guatemala 2010 (0-1), and against Trinidad & Tobago in the Cayman Islands 2014 (7-3).
- The team's largest margin of victory came in the 2004 edition in Canada, when it defeated the Dominican Republic 11-0 on May 29, 2004.

PUERTO RICO

- Puerto Rico will be making its fourth appearance in the Concacaf Women's Under-20 Championship, returning after last competing in the 2023 edition held in the Dominican Republic.
- The team made its final tournament debut in the 2020 edition in the Dominican Republic, where it fell 2-1 to Mexico on February 23, 2020.
- Puerto Rico's best performance came in the 2022 edition, also in the Dominican Republic, where it played for third place against Canada, ultimately falling 2-0.
- The team's most dominant win came on March 4, 2022, when it defeated Saint Kitts & Nevis 7-0 during the 2022 edition in the Dominican Republic.

GUYANA

- Guyana will be making its third appearance in the Concacaf Women's Under-20 Championship, returning after its most recent participation in the 2022 edition held in the Dominican Republic.
- The team made its tournament debut in the 2020 edition, also in the Dominican Republic, earning a 3-1 victory over Nicaragua on February 23, 2020.
- Guyana's best performance came in that same 2020 edition, when it reached the quarterfinal stage before being eliminated by Haiti in a 3-0 defeat.
- The team has played a total of nine matches in the competition, never recording a draw (4 wins – 5 losses).
