COMPETITION

7. WITHDRAWAL, UNPLAYED MATCHES AND ABANDONED MATCHES

- 7.1. After the TPA is signed, all PMAs have the obligation to play all of their matches until eliminated from the Competition.
- 7.2. Any PMA that withdraws up to thirty (30) days prior to the start of Round One or Final Round shall be subject to a fine of at least fifteen thousand US dollars (USD 15,000). Any PMA that withdraws within thirty (30) days before the start of Round One or Final Round, shall be subject to a fine of at least twenty thousand US dollars (USD 20,000).
- 7.3. Depending on the circumstances of the withdrawal, the Disciplinary Committee may impose sanctions in addition to those provided for in section 7.2 above, including the expulsion of such Member Association from subsequent Concacaf competitions.
- 7.4. Any match that is not played, or which is abandoned – except in cases of force majeure recognized by Concacaf – may lead to the imposition of sanctions against the applicable PMA by the Disciplinary Committee in accordance with the Disciplinary Code. In such cases, the Disciplinary Committee may also order that the match be replayed.
- 7.5. Any PMA that withdraws or whose behavior is liable for a match not being played or being abandoned may be ordered to reimburse Concacaf, the opposing PMA, or any other PMA involved, any expenses incurred as a result of its behavior. In such cases, the applicable PMA may also be ordered by Concacaf to pay compensation for any damages incurred by Concacaf or any other Member Association. The applicable PMA in question will also forfeit any claim to financial remuneration from Concacaf.
- 7.6. If a PMA withdraws or a match cannot be played or is abandoned as a result of force majeure, Concacaf shall decide on the matter at its sole discretion and take whatever action is deemed necessary. If a match is not played or is abandoned as a result of force majeure, Concacaf may order a replay. If the circumstances of withdrawal are sufficiently serious, the Disciplinary Committee may also take additional action, if necessary.
- 7.7. If a team does not report for a match, except in cases of force majeure, or refuses to continue to play, or leaves the pitch before the end of the match, such team shall be considered to have lost the match 3-0 and three (3) points shall be awarded to its opponent. If in the case of an abandoned match, the winning team had already reached a higher score at the time the team in question left the field, then the higher score shall remain. The Disciplinary Committee will decide if a team that has withdrawn will be excluded from further participation in the Competition and the results of each of those future matches shall be considered to have lost the match 3-0 and three (3) points shall be awarded to those opponents. For clarity, the results of any matches played before by the team in question shall remain as the final result of such matches.

- 7.8. In addition to the above, the team in question shall pay compensation for any damage or losses suffered by Concacaf, the Host Venue, and/or the other PMAs and shall forfeit any claim to financial remuneration from Concacaf.
- 7.9. The decisions by Concacaf in this section 7 are final and binding, and not subject to appeal.
- 7.10. Further to section 7.6 above, in the case of a match being abandoned as a result of force majeure after it has already kicked off, the following principles shall apply:

7.10.1. The match shall be recommenced at the minute at which play was interrupted, and with the same score, rather than being replayed in full;

7.10.2. The match shall restart with the same players on the pitch and substitutes available as when the match was abandoned;

7.10.3. No additional substitutes may be added to the list of players on the team sheet;

7.10.4. The teams can make only the number of substitutions to which they were still entitled when the match was abandoned;

7.10.5. Players sent off during the abandoned match cannot be replaced;

7.10.6. Any sanctions imposed before the match was abandoned remain valid for the remainder of the match;

7.10.7. The match shall restart at the place where play was stopped when the match was abandoned (i.e., with a free kick, throw-in, goal kick, corner kick, penalty kick, etc.). If the match was abandoned while the ball was still in play, it shall restart with a dropped ball from the position of the ball when play was stopped;

7.10.8. The kick-off time, date (which shall be rescheduled for the following day or otherwise as soon as possible), and location shall be decided by Concacaf in its sole discretion;

7.10.9. Any matters requiring a further decision shall be handled by Concacaf in its sole discretion.

8. REPLACEMENTS

8.1. If any PMA withdraws or is excluded from the Competition, Concacaf shall decide whether to replace the PMA in question with another Member Association.

8.1.1. Once the official draw has been concluded for Round One, in the case that a PMA withdraws or is unable to compete due to medical reasons, unforeseen circumstances or force majeure, (for clarity, each of which must be approved by Concacaf), Concacaf reserves the right to reallocate a PMA from one group to another group in the open slot available in order to preserve fairness and equality throughout the Competition.

8.1.2. Once the official draw has been concluded for the Final Round, in the case that a PMA withdraws or is unable to compete due to medical reasons, unforeseen circumstances or force majeure, (for clarity, each of which must be approved by Concacaf), Concacaf reserves the right to reallocate the next best ranked PMA from Round One (based on their performance in Round One determined through a weighted system, if necessary) into the Final Round open slot in order to preserve fairness and equality throughout the Competition.

- 9.3. PMAs shall be responsible for fielding only eligible players. Failure to do so shall lead to the consequences stipulated in the Disciplinary Code.
- 9.4. If Concacaf believes a player's eligibility is in question, Concacaf reserves the right to consider the said player ineligible to participate in any stage of the Competition until the player's eligibility status is confirmed by Concacaf in accordance with the applicable regulations.

Only the twenty-one (21) players on the final list will be permitted to participate in Round One. This information must be submitted through the Concacaf-approved competition management platform (currently, "Comet") which will be time-stamped.

10.3. A player listed on the final list may only be replaced from the Competition in the event of serious injury or medical matter up until twenty-four (24) hours before the kick-off of her team's first match and must come from the provisional list. Concacaf or the Concacaf Medical Committee (hereinafter: the "Medical Committee") must approve such replacements in writing upon receipt and acceptance of a written detailed medical assessment with a doctor's stamp or valid letterhead in one (1) of the four (4) official Concacaf languages through the Concacaf Player Injury Report. In order to protect players' health as well as to prevent players from experiencing sudden cardiac death during matches at the Competition, each PMA shall ensure and confirm to Concacaf that its players and officials undergo a pre-competition medical assessment (hereinafter: "PCMA") prior to the start of the Competition. The PCMA will include a full medical assessment as well as an EKG to identify any cardiac abnormality. If the EKG is abnormal, an echocardiogram must be obtained and be normal before a player can be released to play.
